Art Safari

“You are a wonderful host and the lodges provided excellent service on both the accommodation and game drives. The organisation of time and travel worked seamlessly and I think it was the best value for money I’ve ever had.

I’ve raved about it all since my return and can’t get Kenya out of my thoughts; fingers crossed I can return.”

30 JAN- 7 FEB 2027

Key Features:

- Guided by two experienced professional artists and tutors, you’ll capture the drama of the landscape and the quiet beauty of life on the savannah, in the forests and by the lakes.
- We will visit three diverse locations, each one offering a unique experience in landscape, light and animals. This will not be a crowded Mara trip battling with numerous other jeeps; this will be us, sketchbooks, cameras, journals and real Kenya.
- The group size is strictly limited to 4 couples for a truly personal experience.
- We will travel in private 4x4s with experienced guides.
- We will return to Nairobi in a private charter flight at the end of the trip, to marvel at the diverse Kenyan landscape from the air.
- Exciting additional optional experiences and activities included: kayaking with elephants, time with anti-poaching dogs, meeting Talah the orphaned giraffe, camel ride.

30 JAN - 7 FEB 2027

Accommodation:

- Crowne Plaza, Nairobi Airport: You will be met upon your arrival by hotel staff and driven 5 minutes for your first night in Kenya, in this luxury airport hotel, with rooftop bar and pool; considered one of the best airport hotels in east Africa.
- Chui Lodge, Naivasha: Tucked within the wild embrace of Oserengoni Sanctuary, Chui Lodge whispers of earth and artistry, where hand-built cottages rest among roaming giraffes and zebras. Dawn breaks softly here, carrying birdsong and the quiet promise of a land deeply loved and protected. Heated swimming pool.
- Nakuru Lodge, Nakuru: Poised above Lake Nakuru, the lodge gazes out over silver waters and acacia-fringed plains. Nakuru has a thriving rhino conservation programs. Each evening, the sky melts into color, turning the landscape into a living canvas of light and life. Swimming pool.
- Mugie Ekorian Camp, Laikipia: In the vast stillness of Mugie Conservancy, Ekorian Camp stands as a gentle footprint in the wilderness, where canvas and firelight meet ancient land. Here, days unfold to the rhythm of birdsong, breeze, and stars, offering a raw and timeless communion with nature. Plunge pool for cooling off.
